The City of Mission Viejo Community of Character Committee was formed in the Winter of 2003. It is composed of local residents who have volunteered to assist the City of Mission Viejo with the following:

- To provide information and recommendations to the Community Services Commission.
- Positive information and programs for individuals, families and all segments of the community about the twelve character qualities: Perseverance, Unity, Integrity, Service, Moral Courage, Citizenship, Fairness, Self Control, Responsibility, Respect, Thankfulness, Caring.
- Developing, promoting and recognizing a framework to mobilize individuals, organizations, businesses, churches, and schools to nurture competent, caring, healthy and responsible citizens (residents, young people).
- Encouraging business, government, schools, churches, families and individuals to embrace assets and model positive, constructive values, and character qualities for people to witness.
- Promoting character-building initiatives in the community.
- Supporting and promoting character awareness and education programs in homes, schools, houses of faith, and places of business.

If you are interested and need further information, please contact the Recreation & Community Services Department at (949) 470-3061 to attend a meeting.
