Chamber to Host Mixer and Three Ribbon Cutting Ceremonies in August

The Shops at Mission Viejo will host the next Mission Viejo Chamber of Commerce mixer on Thursday, August 18. The 5:30 p.m. event begins inside the mall near the Dining Pavilion. Guests will have the chance to win merchandise and gift certificates through an opportunity drawing as well as enjoy free refreshments and networking with local business leaders and elected officials. Mixers are free for chamber members; $10 general admission.

In other chamber news, the organization is gearing up to host three ribbon-cutting ceremonies in August. First up is a ceremony at 4 p.m. on Thursday, August 4 to welcome Ultimate HD Golf, located inside LA Fitness at 24491 Alicia Parkway. A second ceremony follows on August 11 at the offices of Dr. Henry Kim at 25982 Pala. The public is also invited to the 9 a.m. ribbon-cutting event on August 17 that will mark the grand opening of Islands Fine Burgers & Fries at The Shops at Mission Viejo. Visit <http://www.missionviejo-chamber.com> to RSVP or call 949-470-8409 for more information.

Developers Break Ground on New Commercial Center on Marguerite Pkwy

A groundbreaking ceremony was held to make way for building demolition and construction of a new commercial center at 28662 Marguerite Parkway. The July 8 ceremony featured presentations about the GreenStreet commercial center by director of development Bill Kahale and architect Richard Finkle. General contractor Mark Bergman and local elected officials were on hand for the festivities marking the commencement of this new development.

The two-story 17,000-square-foot GreenStreet Center will feature restaurants, retail and services along with an auto spa below the deck of the parking garage. For more information, visit <http://www.greenstreetdevelopments.com>.
