

City of Mission Viejo

Proclamation

A Proclamation of the City Council of the City of Mission Viejo Proclaiming June 5 through June 11, 2016, to be

National Garden Week

Whereas, the National Council of State Garden Clubs has designated the first full week in June as National Garden Week; and

Whereas, the purpose of National Garden Week is to promote interest in horticulture and further the art of amateur gardening; and

Whereas, the Mission Viejo Garden Club, formerly known as Canyon Crest Garden Club, began in 1989 and has grown to more than fifty members; and

Whereas, the Mission Viejo Garden Club is a member of the California Garden Clubs and the Orange County District Garden Clubs; and

Whereas, in 1999, the Mission Viejo Garden Club nominated and the City received a California Landscape Design Critics Council award for excellence in landscape architecture at the Mission Viejo Library; and

Whereas, the members of the Mission Viejo Garden Club planted the rose garden at Florence Joyner Olympiad Park and have been actively maintaining this garden ever since.

Now, therefore, I, Frank Ury, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Mission Viejo and on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim June 5 through June 11, 2016, to be National Garden Week in the City of Mission Viejo and do call upon the residents of this community to plant, feed, and trim their gardens to make this community, we have chosen to make our home, even more beautiful than before.

June 1, 2016

Frank Ury, Mayor
