SPECIAL NOTICES

The City of Mission Viejo requires a job related physical examination, including a drug and alcohol test and a complete background investigation, as part of our selection of regular and part-time, hourly, seasonal, and/or temporary employees. All new and re-hired employees will be fingerprinted as part of the employment process, and a criminal history check will be conducted with the Department of Justice. Offers of employment are conditional upon the successful completion of these examinations. Federal immigration law requires all employers to verify both the identity and employment eligibility of all persons hired to work in the United States. In its efforts to meet the law's requirements, the City of Mission Viejo is participating in the E-Verify Employment Eligibility Verification program established by the Department of Homeland Security and the Social Security Administration (SSA) to aid employers in verifying the employment eligibility of all newly hired or rehired employees. Our participation in this program does not exempt us from the obligation to complete a Form I-9 for every hired or rehired employee. Hourly, seasonal, and/or temporary (HST) employees are not part of the competitive service and are not entitled to any rights or benefits of regular employees except as expressly set forth under the City's personnel policies. An hourly, seasonal, and/or temporary employee serves at the will of the City Manager and may be released at any time for any reason. The City of Mission Viejo has a smoking policy that prohibits smoking at the workstation of all employees. The provisions noted herein are intended only as general guidelines for prospective applicants and may be modified or revoked without prior notice or agreement.

In accordance with California state law, all City of Mission Viejo employees are disaster services workers and may be required to report for duty, or remain on duty, in the event of a disaster.
